The Sydney Met requires offshore international students pay their first year's fees (i.e. 8 Units fees) in full and in advance so as to assess their Genuine Temporary Entrant (GTE) requirement proof for financial capacity to pay for the course. Following years' fees can be paid by trimesters.

The Sydney Met provides the option for onshore international students and Australian domestic students to pay their fees through instalments, if the student requests this option. After Trimester 1, all subsequent trimester payments must be paid in full two weeks prior to the trimester commencing in order to maintain a valid enrolment.

Deferment, Suspension or Cancellation of Enrolment

Deferment, suspension or cancellation of Enrolment may happen in cases where student requests or College initiates. In both cases, the College has appropriate policies and procedures in place with regard to manage enrolment and refunds.

Please check the College's policy and procedures on deferment, suspension and cancellation of enrolment in the College website, or obtain the policy and form from the College reception desk.

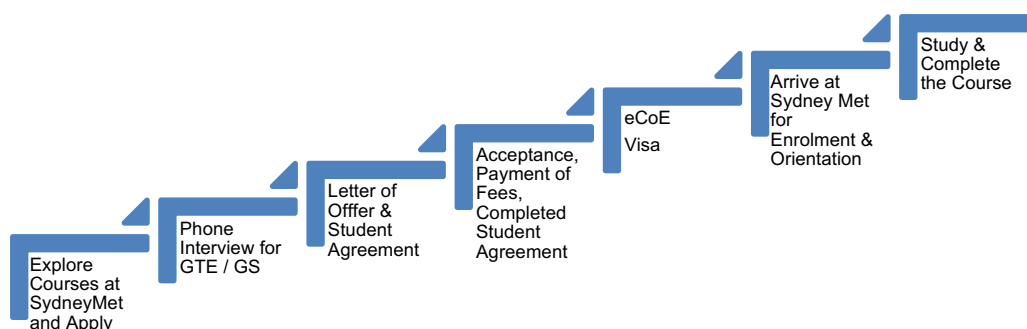

Refund of Fees and Other Costs

The college is committed to ensuring fair and equitable policies and procedures are in place with regard to student fee refunds. Please note that refund is not Automatic.

- A student must make an application for refund by completing a Request for Student Refund form and submitting it to Student Services. Refund applications will be reviewed and are subject to the college approval.
- Approved refunds will be processed for domestic students within four (4) weeks of the Request for Student Refund form being received.
- Refunds can be processed directly into a nominated bank account through Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) taking into account bank processing times. Refunds cannot be made in cash.
- For details on refund, please check the College's refund policy, and Refund Application Form, please contact College's reception desk, or from our Website under the Fees and Refund link.

Application Process

To enrol into a course as a student at Sydney Met, applicants must complete a Student Application Form available from the website. The form should be completed in full and submitted by email to: admin@sydneymet.com.au. A simplified application and study process is illustrated below:

The application for enrolment must be accompanied by:

- Completed application form
- Certified copy of your passport
- Certified copy of qualifications including academic transcripts
- Certified copy of English language proficiency test results

- Completed Credit/RPL application form (if applicable)
- A statement of service from employer/s (if applicable)
- A certified copy of your Credit/RPL details (if applicable)
- A certified copy of your visa (if applicable)

When we receive your application, our Admissions Officer will review it for completeness. When the application is complete, the officer will organise a pre-enrolment interview with you via phone, skype or other means. If the officer is satisfied with your documentation and interview, you will be issued a Letter of Offer, sometimes with conditions, with an invoice for initial payment of fees, along with a Student Agreement form. This Offer is valid for 2 weeks. Within this period, you need to accept the offer by paying the fees and returning the completed Written Student Agreement, with any other documents stated in the conditions such as IELTS score and education proof.

Upon receipt of your acceptance and approval of your application, an electronic confirmation of enrolment (eCoE) will be generated and forwarded to the Department of Home Affairs and yourself at the address provided on your application with an official receipt for the fees paid.

International students can then proceed with the application for an Australia visa. It is the applicant's responsibility to apply and obtain a student visa.

Student Study Intention Statement for International Students:

International student application must provide answers to a set of questions as part of the Application form which the College will undertake a preliminary assessment as to whether you are a Genuine Temporary Entrant (GTE) and a Genuine Student (GS). The college will contact all applicants to conduct an initial phone interview.

The Department of Home Affairs will undertake its own determination of the GTE and GS status of the applicant. For further information, please visit the department web site at <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au>
